Don't forget Jaryd Bayless at Arizona. This guy is outstanding. He is playing right now against Kansas and has great skills.

Oh most def. You absolutely right. Jarryd Bayless is leading the Wildcats in scoring and assists with 20 points and 5 dimes a night. Syracuse has a lethal rookie combination in Donte Green, leading the Orange in scoring at 19.8 points and snatching 8 boards a game, and floor general Jerry Flynn runnin the show, distributing 6 dishes a night. Kosta Koufas isn't making anyone forget about "Mr. Get It Outta Here" Greg Oden, but the big man is filling the void nicely, posting a team high 16.1 points, 7 rebounds and 1.7 blocks an outing. Kentucky first year bruiser Patrick Patterson, and high school teammate of O.J. Mayo has been somewhat unheralded in comparison to his peers, but don't nap on the kid. Patterson's putting up 16.3 points and almost 9 rips a night. And USC power forward point machine Davon Jefferson is a getting his buckets quick like Hungry Man dinners. Jefferson's busting 14 points a game in only 25 minutes and 8 attempts

This year's class is jammed with ptpers from to to bottom, they're hungry, dangerous and can't wait to get their shine on.
